Arash Hashemi to Speak at Santa Monica Bar Association MCLE Event on Jan. 12, 2018

By Sarah Thompson , in PR PR Los Angeles on January 3, 2018 .

SANTA MONICA, Calif., January 3, 2018 – The Santa Monica Bar Association announced that attorney Arash Hashemi will be the speaker at the “First Friday Lunch” on Jan. 12, 2018.

The January 2018 edition of the First Friday Luncheon will focus on MCLE Ethics credit and is titled: Ethical duties to a client with a criminal law issue and will concentrate on Duties of an Attorney Who Does Not Practice Criminal Law to Clients with a Criminal Law Issue. Oftentimes an attorney who does not practice criminal law is approached by an existing client with a criminal law problem. The attorney might know who to refer the client to but does he/she know what ethical duties are owed to the client? In this course, Arash Hashemi discusses the ethical duties that an attorney owes to a client with a criminal law issue. To register for this event, please visit <http://smba.net/event-2757333>.
